

THE MONDAY

REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405
December 12, 1983
Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Record Series

File: EG 1-12-85

Date: 9-28-95

HAPPY HOLIDAYS TO ALL!!!!!!

AFRO-AMERICAN ASSOCIATION PLANS CHRISTMAS PROJECT

The Afro-American Cultural Association is asking the faculty, staff, and students at Shelton State Community College to donate either clothing, toys, or canned goods. These items will be donated to the Department of Pensions and Security to be given away to a needy family. The boxes for the items will be located in front of Dean Lee's office.

SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED

The School of Agriculture, Forestry, and Biological Sciences at Auburn University offers approximately 80 scholarships to undergraduate students annually. Several of these scholarships are for new students including transfer students from junior colleges. If you are interested contact Mary Anne Z. Thomas in the counseling center.

PHI THETA KAPPA BOOK SALE

Checks for the books sold in the Phi Theta Kappa Winter quarter book sale are now ready and may be picked up this week at the main desk in the library. Students are asked to come by and pick up your check and/or book.

CHRISTMAS ACTIVITIES ANNOUNCED FOR SHELTON

Monday, December 12: Christmas parade, 6:30 p.m.

Thursday, December 15: Shelton Singers Christmas concert, 11 a.m., junior college auditorium.

Thursday, December 15: Christmas for students, faculty, and families. Refreshments will be served, Shelton Singers will lead a sing-a-long, Dr. Lee Albritton will present a magical chemistry show. AND OF COURSE SANTA CLAUS WILL BE THERE!!!! 7 - 8 p.m., junior college auditorium.

THE FACULTY AND STAFF OF THE JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION WOULD LIKE TO EXPRESS THEIR APPRECIATION TO ALICE BROYLES AND BONNIE SABBAGH FOR THEIR UNTIRING EFFORTS IN PREPARING AND ORGANIZING THE THANKSGIVING LUNCHEON.

CHRISTMAS INTERIUM COURSE OFFERED

This year Shelton State will offer a course during the Christmas holidays, EG 210, Introduction to Meteorology. It will be taught by UA professor Colgan Bryan and will begin December 17 and conclude January 2 during hours of 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. No classes will be held on December 23, 24, 25, 26, December 31, and January 1. To register go by the records office.

ACT TESTING

ACT registration packets have just arrived and are available in the counseling center. The next scheduled test date is February 11, 1984, with a registration deadline of January 13, 1984.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

A free course in English as a Second Language will be offered at Shelton, beginning January 3, 1984. The course will be geared for foreign students and residents who need help in learning the English language. Mrs. Elizabeth DeRamus will be the instructor. A minimum of 15 students must be preregistered by December 15 in order for the course to be offered. For more information, contact Dorothy Thompson at Shelton or Mrs. DeRamus, 345-0392.

IS ON THE HORIZON

HORIZON magazine has made an offer to help with the renovation of the Bama Theatre. For every $18 subscription to HORIZON magazine, $9 of it goes toward the Bama Theatre Renovation Fund. With the subscription to HORIZON you will receive 10 issues of theatre, art, music, dance, photography, film, and literature. For more information contact the Arts Council of Tuscaloosa, 758-5195.

LAST WEEK TO ENTER PAGEANT

The deadline to enter the 1984 Miss Shelton State Pageant is Friday, December 16. The pageant which is scheduled for January 28 will select Shelton's representative to the Miss Alabama Pageant which will be held in Birmingham next summer. The winner of the state pageant will represent Alabama in the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City in August.

The winner of the Miss Shelton State Pageant will receive scholarship money, gifts, and possible scholarships. Miss Shelton State of 1983, Lisa Plowman, is now attending the University of Alabama as a direct result of a scholarship she won in the Miss Alabama Pageant.

For more information or to obtain an entry form, contact Judy Austin, Lucy Kubiszyn, or Loretta Kyles at the Junior College or Lyda Black at the Technical Division.

UTILITARIAN POTTERY EXHIBIT AT SHELTON STATE

A utilitarian pottery exhibit by Larry Manning, instructor of art, Jefferson Davis Junior College, Brewton, Alabama, is currently on display at the Junior College Division library.

Manning, a graduate of Florida State University and the University of Mississippi, has exhibited widely throughout the Southeast and has participated in a special exhibition at the Smithsonian Museum in Washington, D.C. He has also served as an artist-in-residence with the National Endowment of the Arts.

Manning works primarily in stoneware and porcelain and the pieces in this exhibit are utilitarian in nature and include teapots, vases, bowls, and other types of containers.

The exhibit is open to the public through December 16, Monday - Friday, 8 a.m. - 9 p.m., Friday, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. A price list of the pottery is available upon inquiry.

BUILDING BETTER BOARDS SEMINAR SCHEDULED

Tuesday, January 3, 1984, Mary Jolly, vice-president for development and director of the Building Better Boards project, Trident Technical College, Charleston, S.C., will conduct a one-day workshop explaining the Building Better Boards project. Mrs. Jolly is a native Tuscaloosan and will be visiting relatives during the holidays. She has been extremely interested in the project for Tuscaloosa and the West Alabama area. The workshop will be held at 9:30 a.m. at Indian Hills Country Club. Schedule of the day's activities includes:

- 9:30 - 11 a.m.: Meeting designed to acquaint Shelton administration with program.
- 11 - 11:30 a.m. Break
- 11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.: Lunch and workshop for Shelton administrators and the Tuscaloosa BBB community Advisory board.
- 1:30 - 3 p.m.: "Training the Trainer." Mrs. Jolly will work with Shelton administrators who may be conducting the training sessions.

SHELTON PRESIDENT LEO SUMNER, DR. ARTHUR HOWINGTON, AND GUESNA DOHRMAN WILL BE ATTENDING THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SOUTHERN ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS THIS WEEK IN NEW ORLEANS.

TECHNICAL TALK

It's Christmas time at the Technical Division and Christmas trees are in the nursing department and rooms 101 and 104 are aglow with holiday cheer....Mrs. Pearson, coordinator of the ADN and LPN nursing programs, is home and recuperating following surgery. Plans call for her to be back at the college after the holidays....Mrs. Bibby's and Ms. Imman's LPN classes have adopted families for Christmas through the Department of Pensions and Securities....LPN instructors Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Robinson are taking courses from Auburn University....More construction news as the nursing department does more moving. The business education classes will be moving into room 102 and Ms. Day's class will move to room 105.

THE SHELTON STATE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION WILL HAVE A COVERED DISH SUPPER WEDNESDAY EVENING AT THE HOME OF LUCY KUBISZYN. ANYONE WHO HAS ATTENDED SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE FOR ONE QUARTER IS ELIGIBLE FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE SSAA. FOR MORE INFORMATION ON THE PARTY, CONTACT BETTY BROWN, DEAN MONTGOMERY, SHARON DECK, JANET GREGORY, OR LUCY KUBISZYN.

COLLEGE BOWL COMPETITION HELD

Shelton State hosted the first district competition of the newly formed Junior College Scholar Bowl League last week. Jefferson State Junior College in Birmingham came in first and Northwest Junior College of Phil Campbell was runner-up.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

A retirement party honoring Don Todd will be held Wednesday, December 15, at 7 p.m. in the Ramada Inn South. Cost of the steak dinner is $11 per person. Friends of Todd are invited to attend. For more information contact Bob Hagler at the Fire College.

THE HUMANITIES LUNCHEON WILL BE DECEMBER 14 AT NOON AT THE HOME OF BRENDA RYAN IN MOUNDVILLE. ALL MEMBERS OF THE HUMANITIES DIVISION ARE ASKED TO BRING A COVERED DISH.